

Australian Cybernetic: a point through time

WITH THANKS

INDIVIDUALS: Pita Arreola / Kirstin Bach / William Barton / John & Rosalind Billingsley / Tilly Boylen / David C. Brock / Kate Crawford / Robert Devčić / Harvey Dillion / Douglas Dodds / Ed Eckert / Annie Flodin / Sharon Frost / Tony Furse / Belinda Haag / John Hansen / Harvey Holmes / Richard Ihnatowicz / Stephen Jones / Charles Martin / Bob & Brenda McLennan / A. Michael Noll / Kazufumi Ozumi / Janet Petitpas / Pedro Proenca / Doug Richardson / Adam Robbins / Iran Sanadzadeh / Greg Schiemer / Jasia Reichardt / Mark Thomson / Alex Zivanovic

ORGANISATIONS: Art Transportation Australia / AT&T / Australian Broadcasting Corporation / The Australian National University / Boeing, USA / Canberra Museum & Gallery / Computer History Museum, California / Computer Technique Group, Japan / Edward Ihnatowicz Estate / The Exploratorium, San Francisco / GV Art London / IBM, New York City / Joseph Stanislaus Ostojka-Kotkowski Estate / Melbourne Electronic Sound Studio / Melbourne University Baillieu Library / Morris & Helen Belkin Collection, University of British Columbia / National Archives of Australia / National Film & Sound Archive of Australia National Gallery of Australia / Nokia Bell Labs, New Jersey / Ontario Science Centre / Powerhouse Museum of Applied Arts & Sciences / Questacon / Rhode Island School of Design / RMIT / Science Gallery Melbourne University / State Library of South Australia / Sydney University, Chau Chak Wing Museum / Time Out, UK / Uncanny Valley Music / University of New South Wales / UOVO art transport, San Francisco / Vancouver Art Gallery / Victoria & Albert Museum, London / The Vinyl Factory, London / Warner Music Group / Zinovieff Family Estate

This 2022 exhibition was imagined by Genevieve Bell and Andrew Meares, led by the curatorial team of Andrew Meares, Caroline Pegram and Amy McLennan, and supported by the School of Cybernetics.

In particular, we wish to express our gratitude to curators Jasia Reichardt (Cybernetic Serendipity, 1968) and Doug Richardson (Computers and Electronics in the Arts, 1975), and to Australian historian of the electronic arts Stephen Jones.