

Australian National University

School of Cybernetics

Cybernetics Snacks Menu

A bite-sized speaker series with leading voices in the cybernetics conversation.

30 minute sessions, Wednesdays in May/June 2023
All are welcome!

Ethnomathematics and social justice infused with systems science and indigenous histories

Served by Ron Eglash, University of Michigan

May 3
10-10:30 AEST

Histories of science, computing and cybernetics, whisked with design, futures and social change

Served by Orit Halpern, Technische Universitat Dresden

May 10
16-16:30 AEST

A complex blend of rural development, sustainable management, and collaborative, practical action

Served by Ray Ison, Open University

May 17
10-10:30 AEST

Art and creativity steeped in a long tradition of Cybernetics in action

Served by Vanilla Beer, Modern Mythmaker

May 24
16-16:30 AEST

Music and experimental art practices stirred through the frameworks of cybernetics

Served by Kate Doyle, Rutgers University

May 31
10-10:30 AEST

Fresh, local ethnographic practice with a side of commercial and industry application

Served by Alex Zafiroglu, Australian National University

June 7
10-10:30 AEST

Head chefs:

Amy McLennan, Tom Chan and Danny Bettay.

To join us for snacks,
scan the QR code.

@anucybernetics